

Introduction to Planets that Square the Nodes

With Ari Moshe Wolfe

Based on the teachings of Evolutionary Astrology As taught by Jeffrey Wolf Green

Memories of who the soul has been. “pattern of identity making”

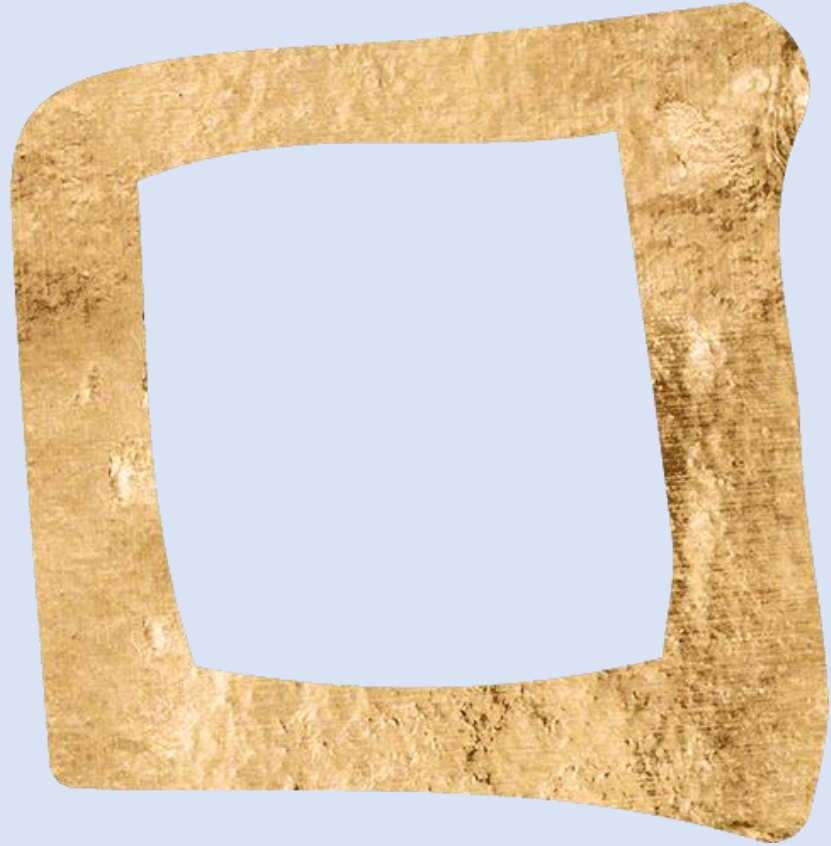

1. Re-live
2. Fruition
3. Combination

Developing identity structure.
What the soul wants to experience in order to facilitate its ongoing evolution.

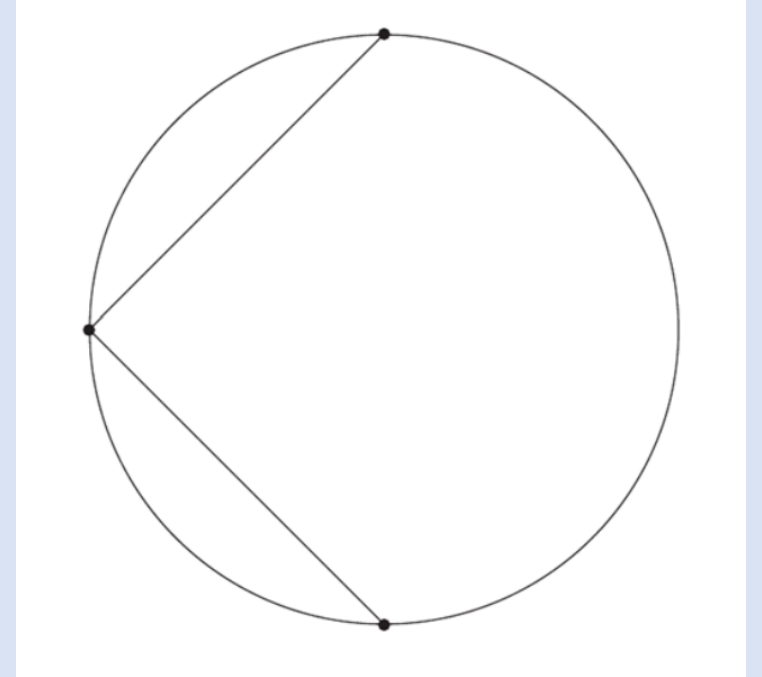

“Evolution occurs through the emotional body”

The Square

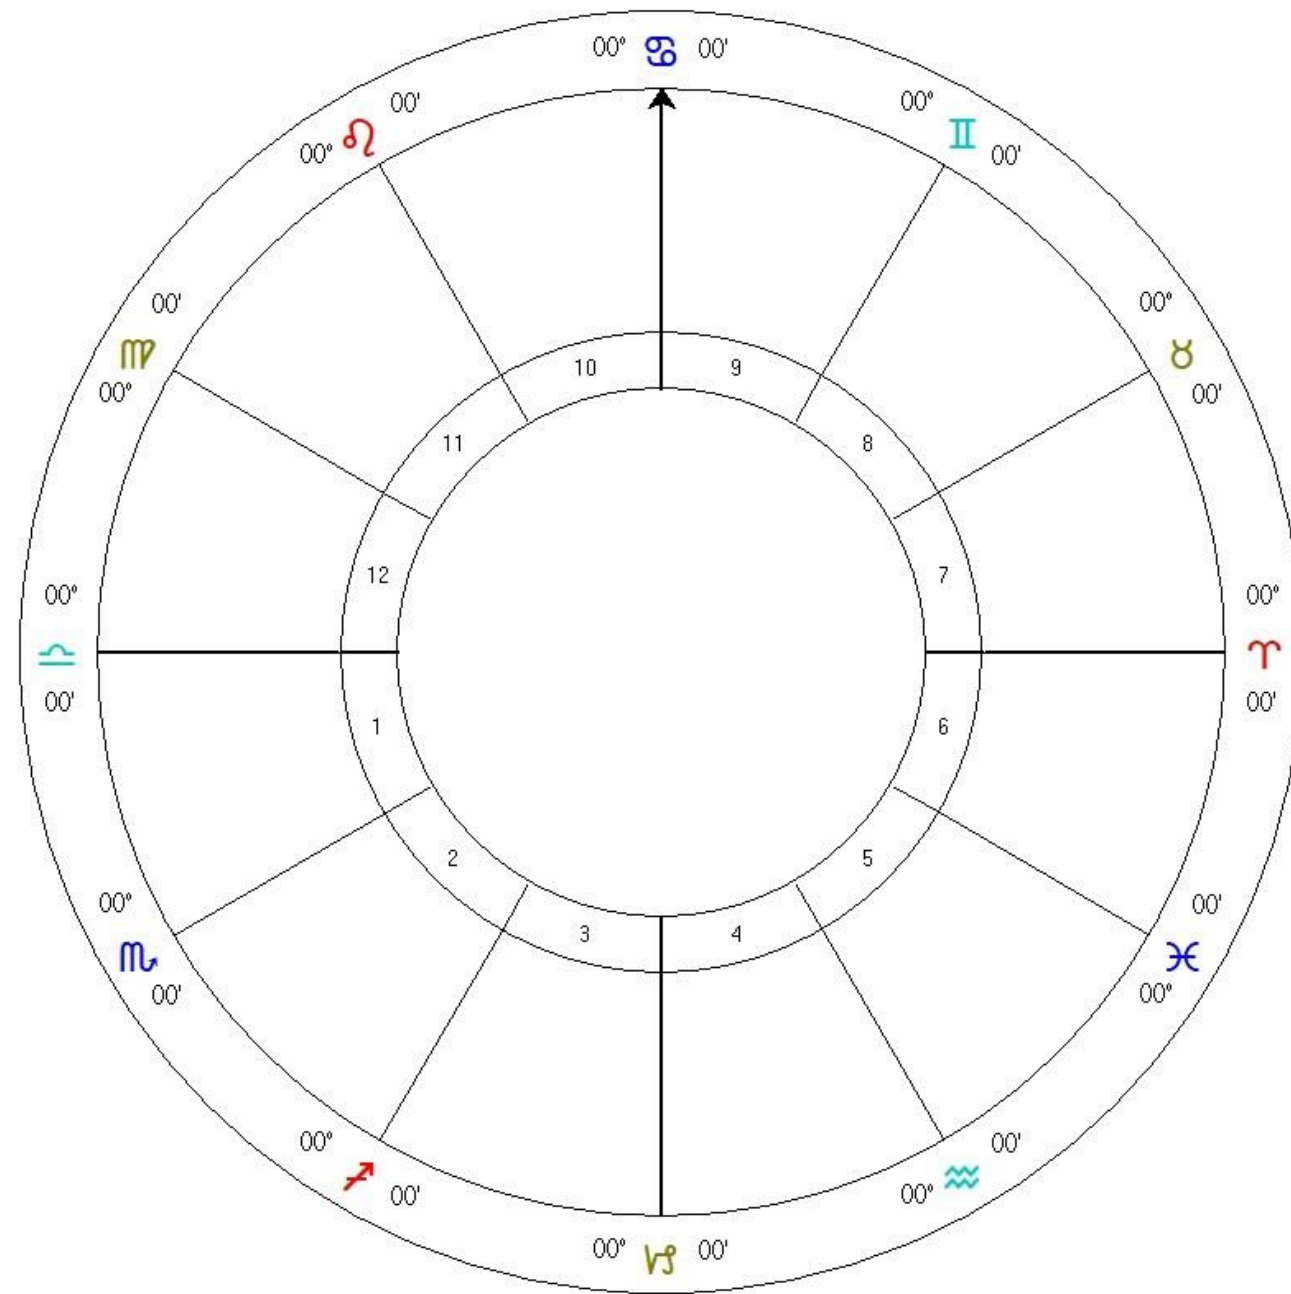

- Stress to actualize and establish concrete forms.
- Greater strength and definition.
- Turning point within a cycle

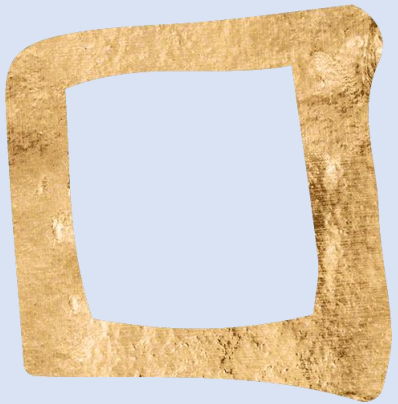

270° Last quarter Square

90° First quarter Square

When a planet square the Lunar Nodes

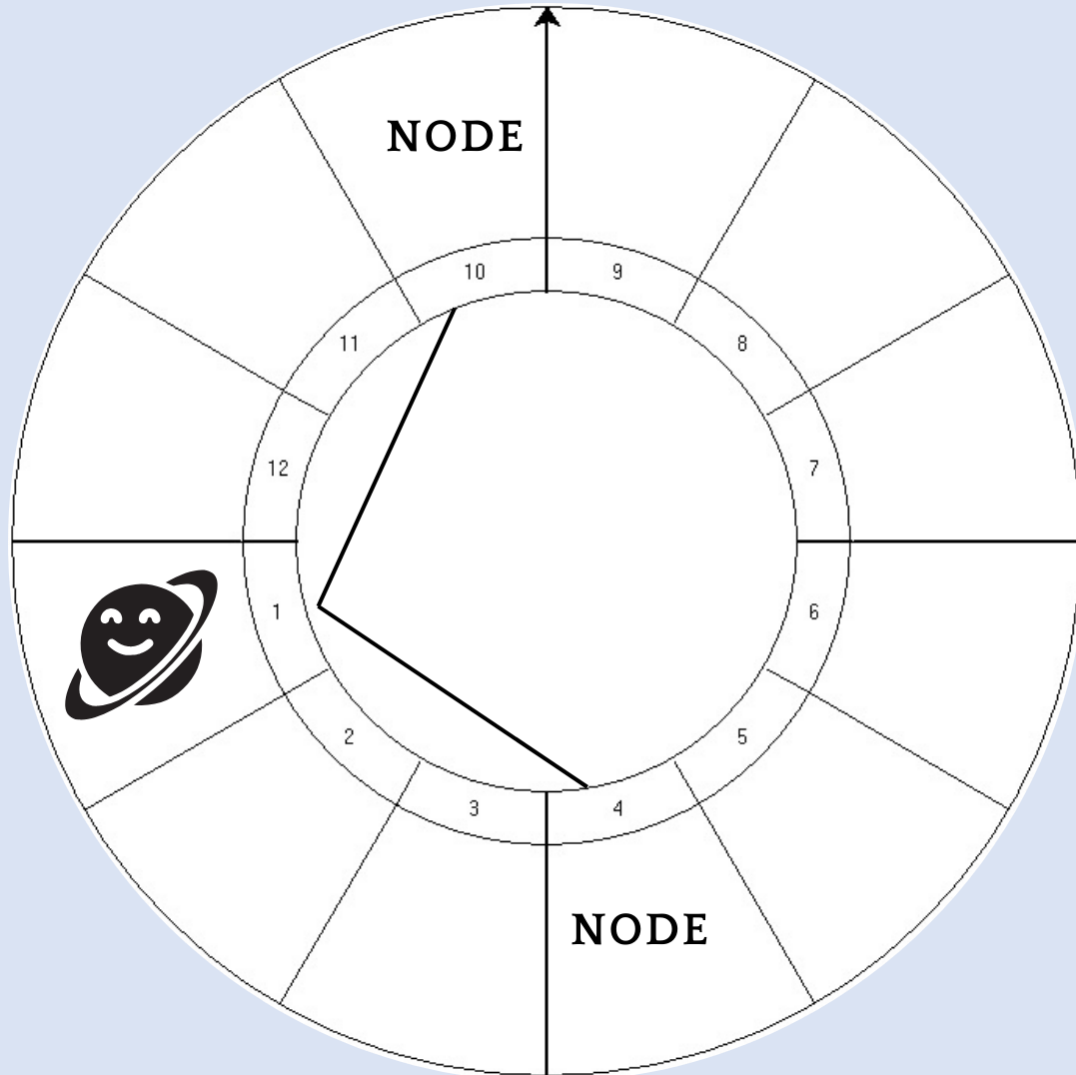

- Stress for integration of entire nodal axis
- Flip flopping between the nodes
- Neither node fully developed

Jeffrey Wolf Green called this a Skipped Step

Feel into the tension

General 1st house planet characteristics

- Eager, self-motivated
- Reactive, argumentative
- Jumping into activity
- Act first, learn second

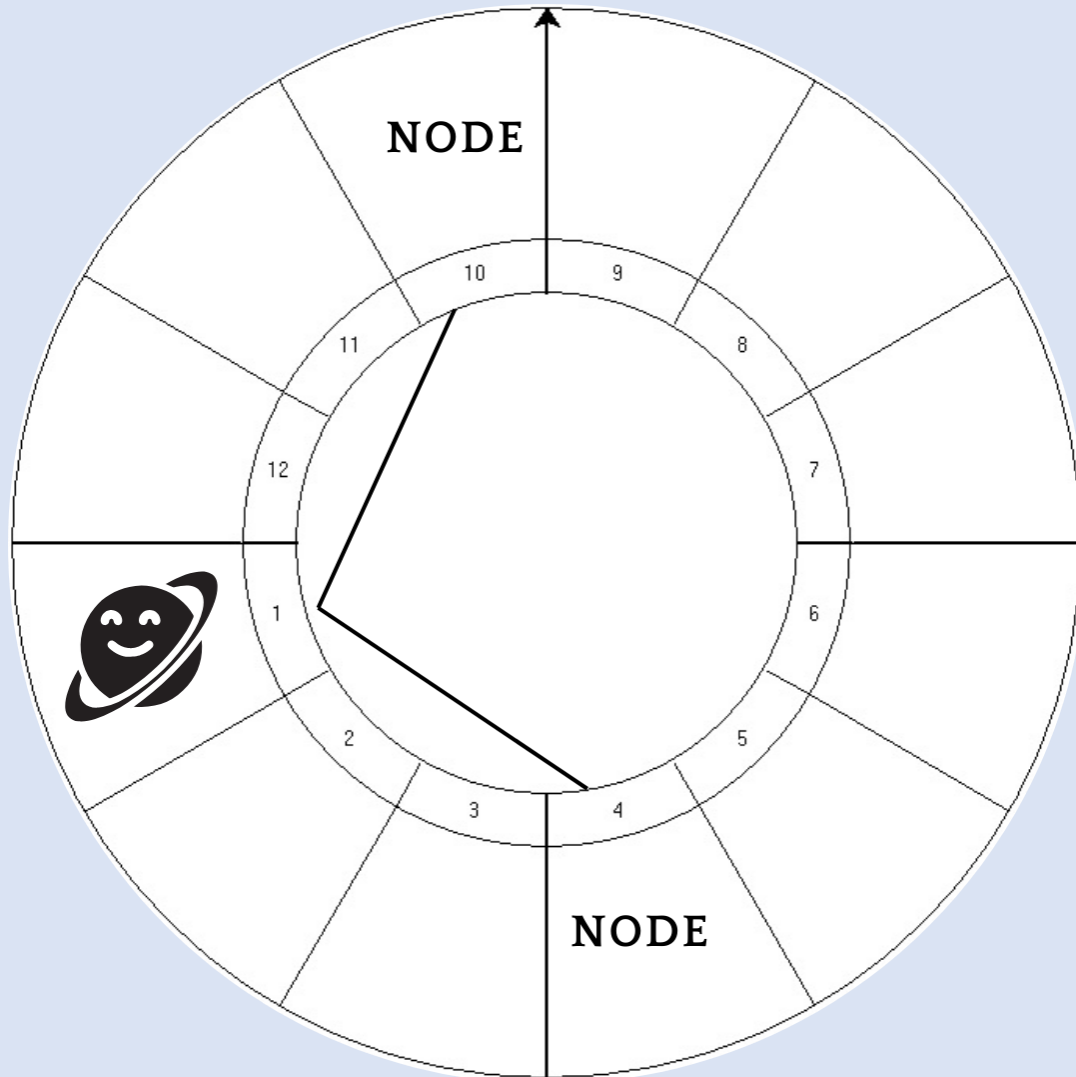

4th house

- Emotional security, safety, bonding
- Home, familiarity
- Nourishment, providing and receiving nurturance
- Sources of healthy emotional attachment

10th house

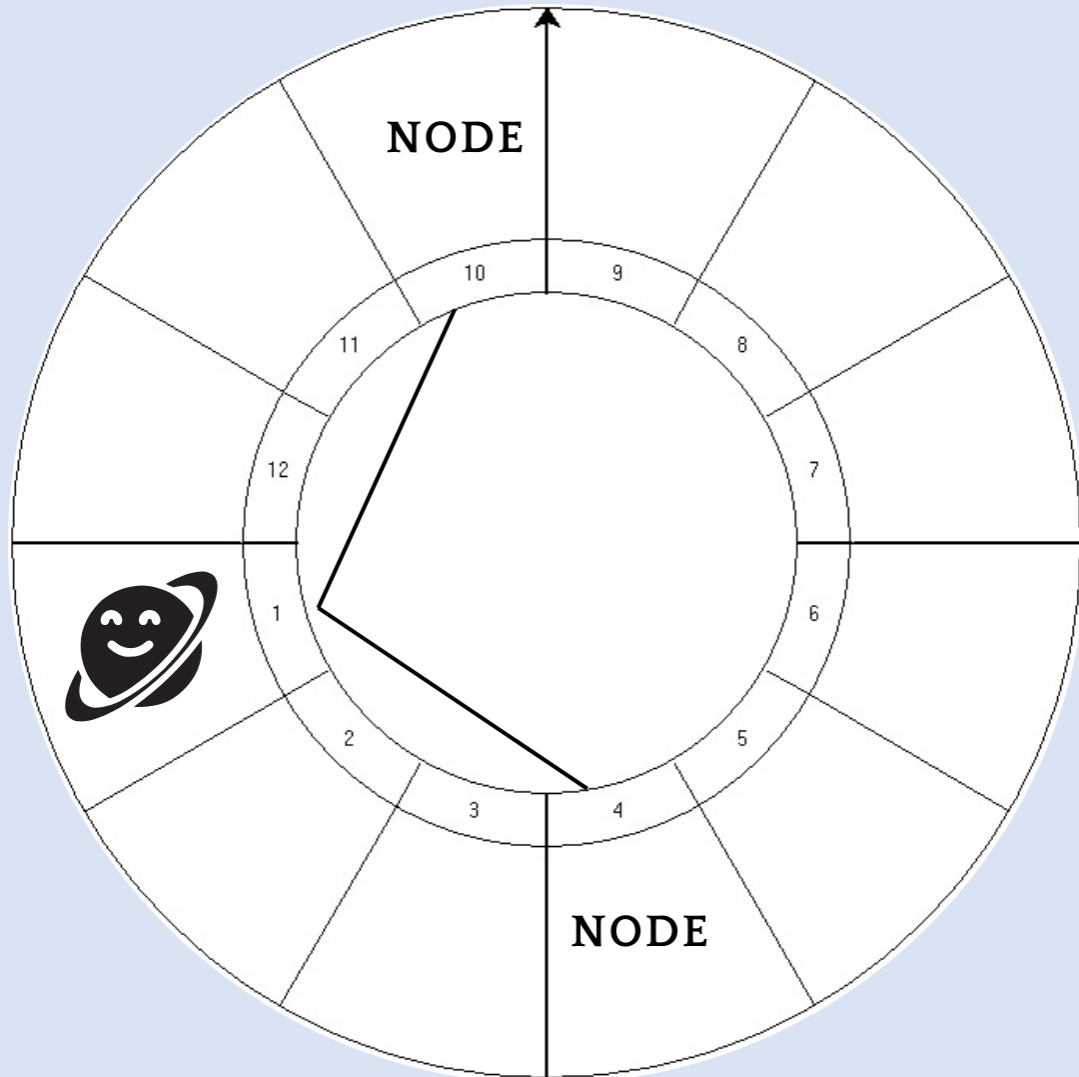

- Social role, responsibility
- Time-awareness
- Cultivation of self-authority
- Repression, long term goal oriented

General Issues

- Jumping into “adult” experience before one is ready
- Trying to grow up too quickly
- Climbing up the mountain and leaving family behind, not making it all the way up
- Youth going to war to protect family on behalf of one’s nation
- A youth too eager to prove themselves
- Emotional outbursts, emotional immaturity, struggle with learning how to tame impulses within society
- Picking up a sword bc of emotional whim, not wielding it correctly
- Fear of separation refusal to grow up

Why Does This Happen?

- Evolution requires completeness of experience. You can't skip ahead without needing to go back at some point.
- "A Soul can evolve various dynamics while at the same time 'leaving behind' other dynamics that correlate to skipped steps. So [in the case of a planet squaring the nodes], the evolution of the Soul, and all of its dynamics, are blocked until those skipped steps are indeed recovered."
- The soul is the cause of a skipped step and the cause of its resolution

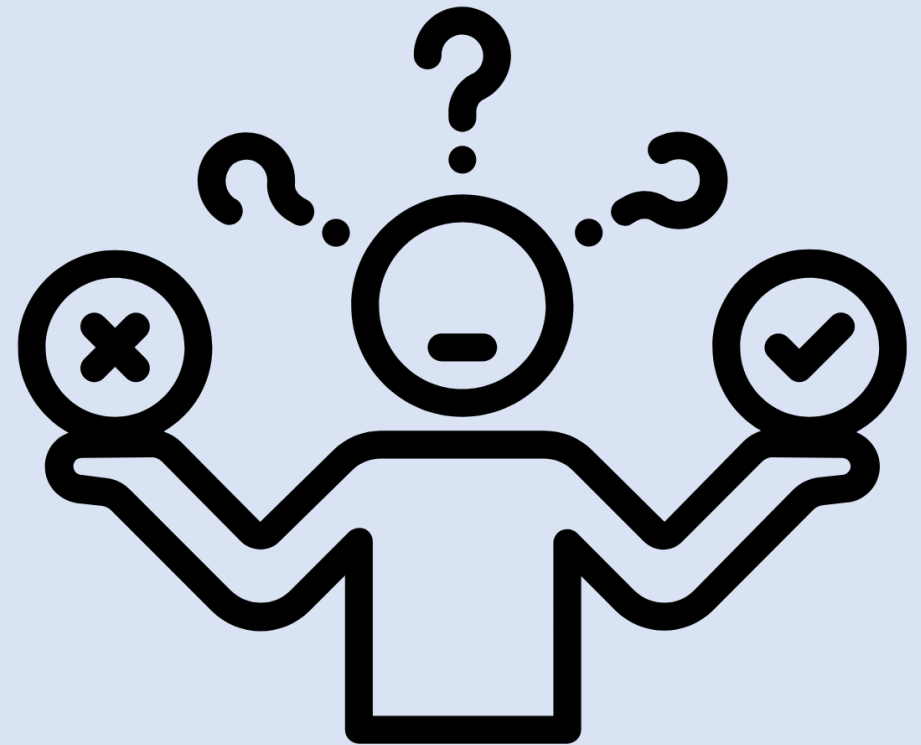

Don't jump to conclusions!

There is no one sized fits all

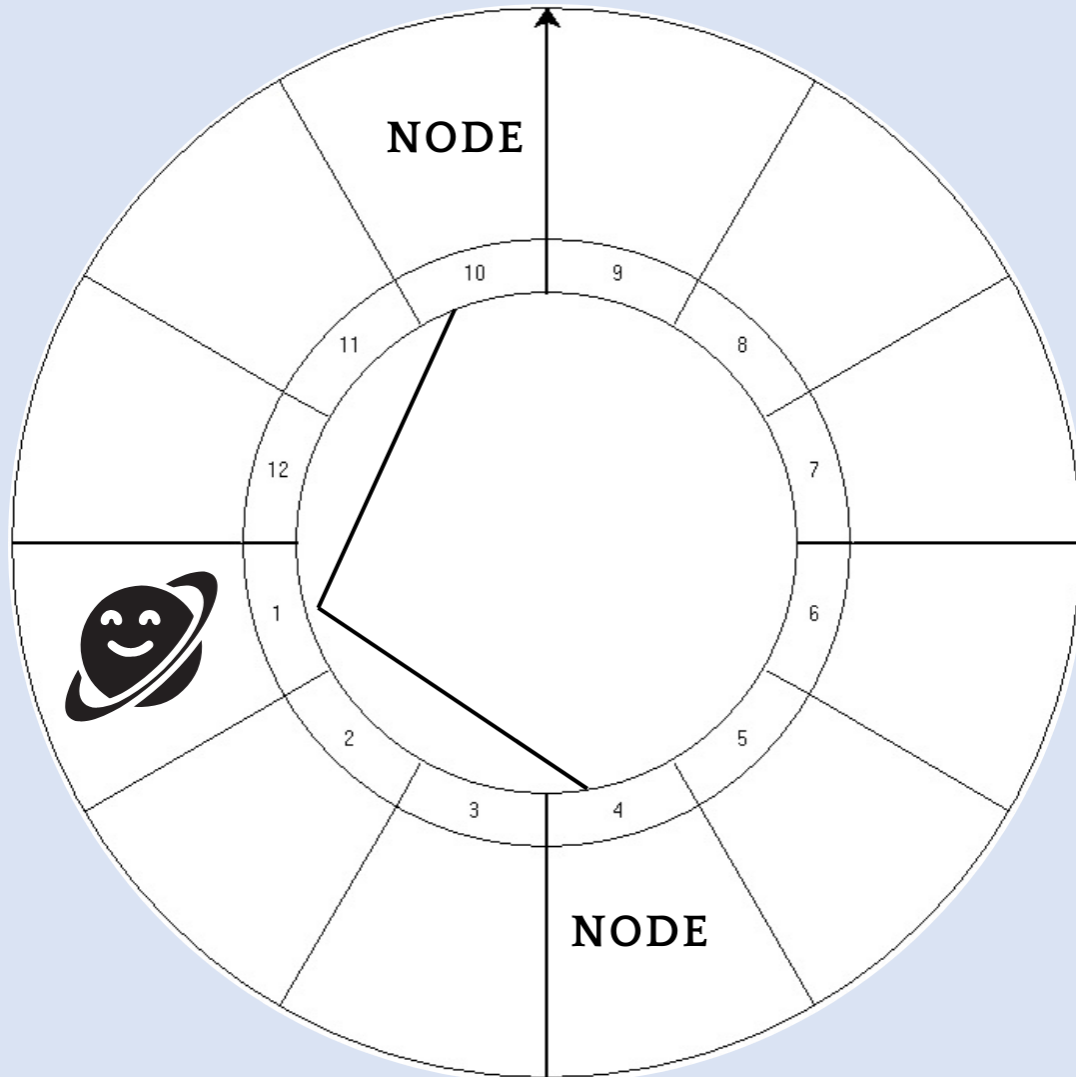

Each skipped step configuration is unique

The natal chart REFLECTS the reality of the soul itself

Take your time to observe, study and practice

Resolution Node

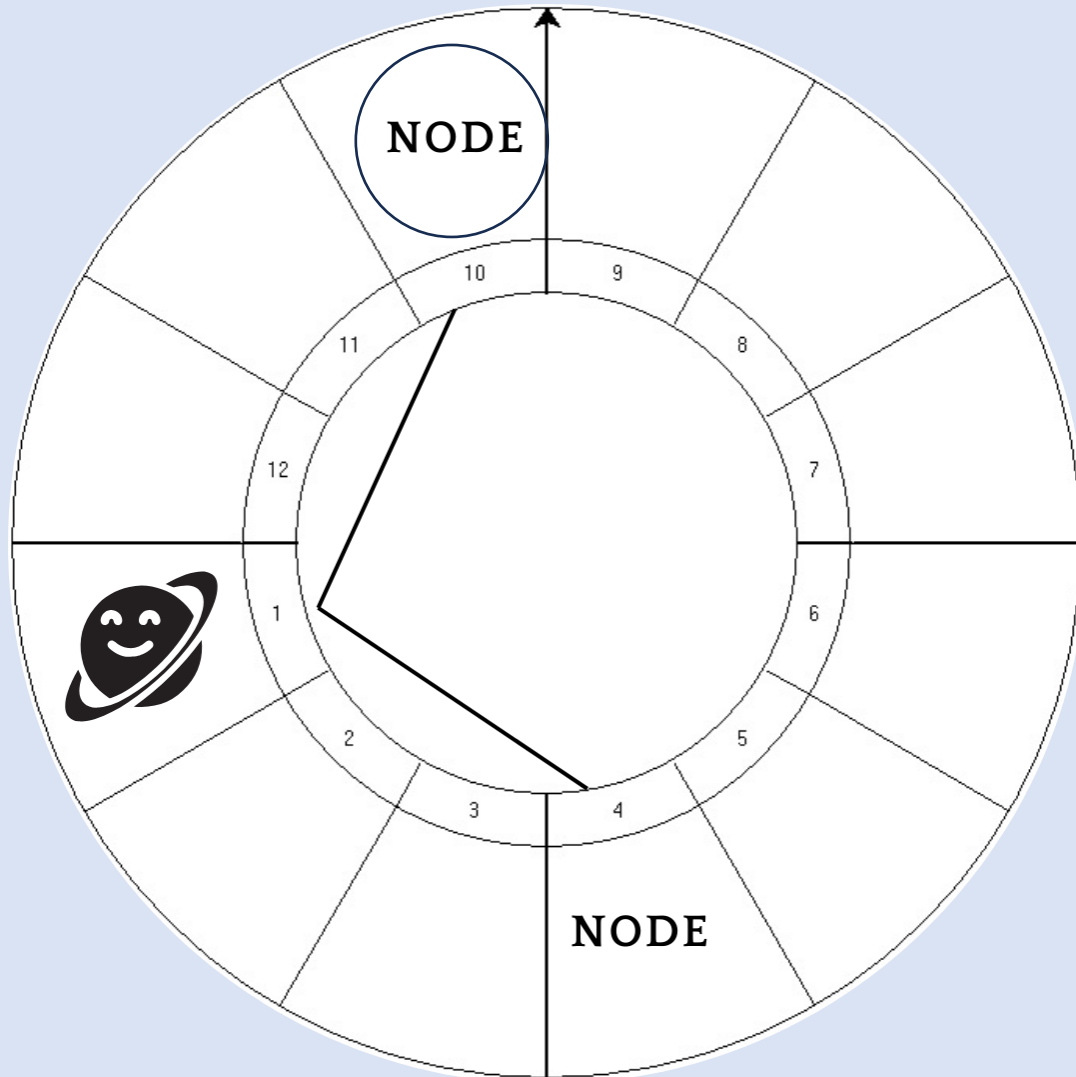

“The reasons for the skipped steps are within the nature of the symbols themselves that correlate to the skipped step signature. So, in essence, the solution is within the ‘problem’ itself.”

The Node that the planet LAST formed a conjunction to the squaring planet to is called the RESOLUTION NODE.

This is the node through which the entire complex (the planet, both nodes and their rulers) need to be consciously integrated.

Resolution Node

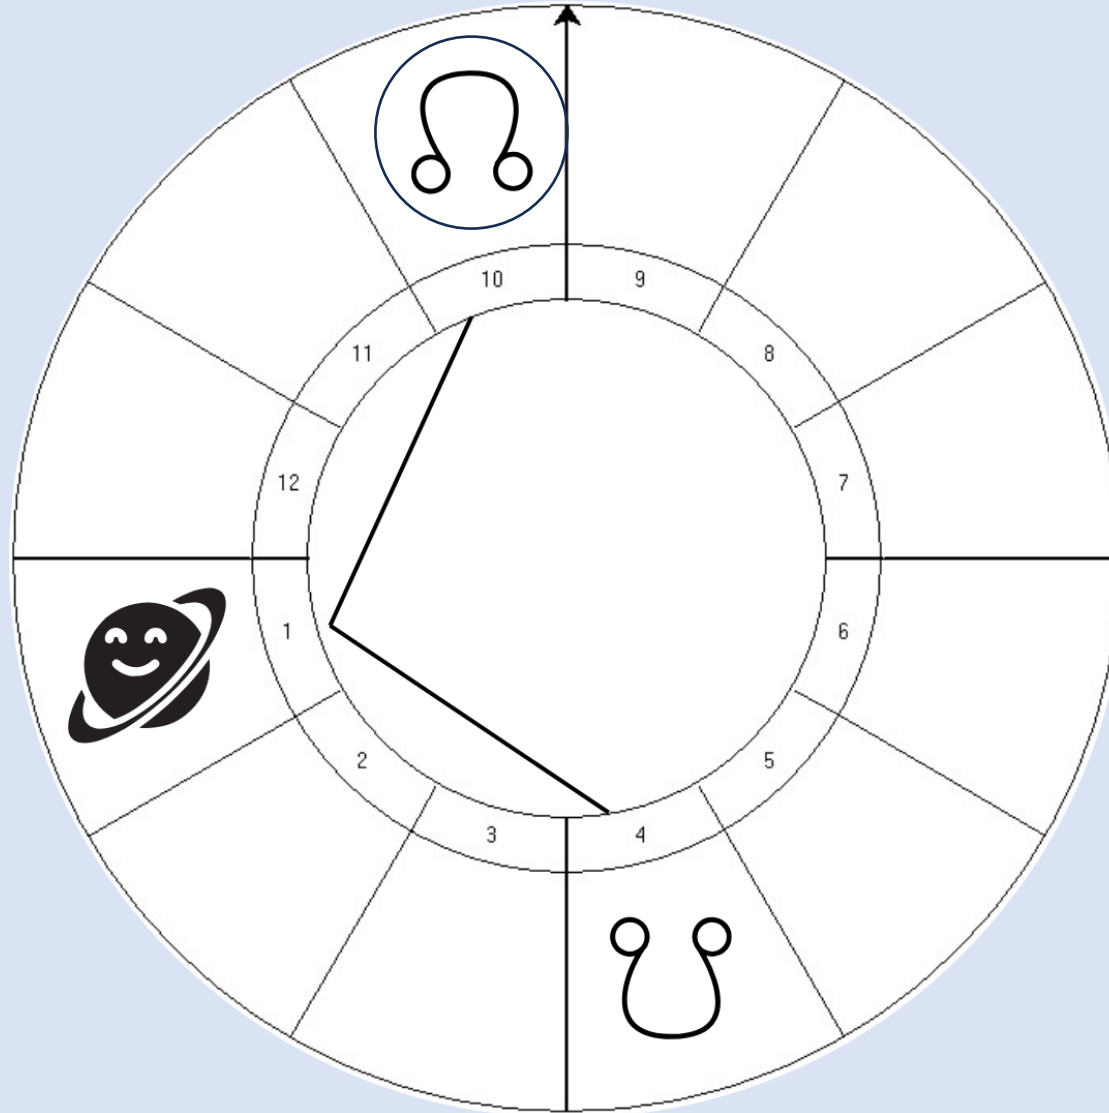

The 10th house node is the resolution node

The planet and that 10th house node are SEPARATING from a conjunction in time.

Technique:

Stand on the planet, look into the center of the wheel.
Now look to your left. That is your resolution node.

More Interpretive Details

In total we are addressing

- The squaring planet
- Both nodes and their rulers
- Aspects to both of the nodes and to their rulers

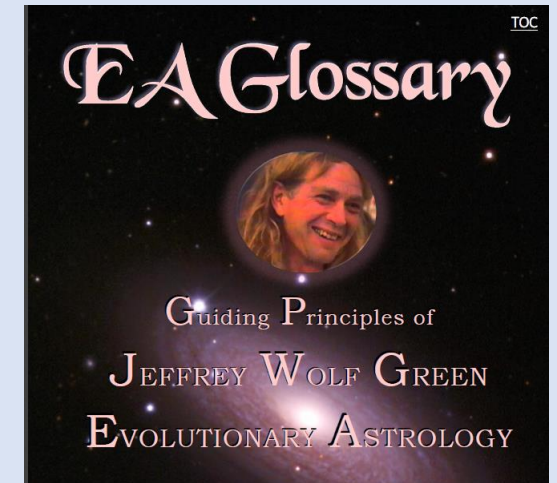

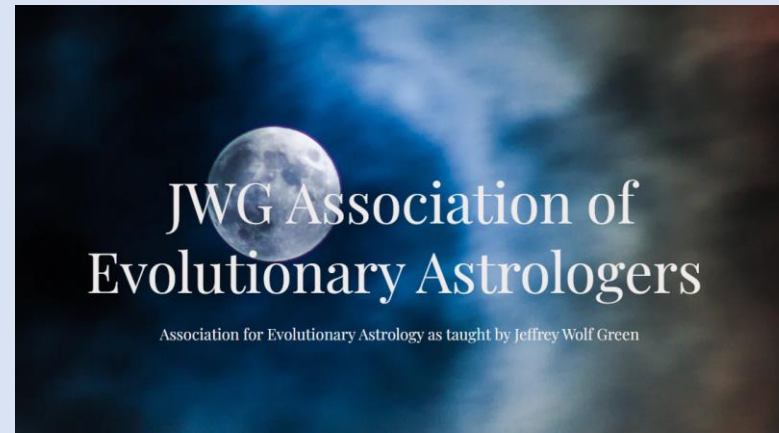

Guidance for practice

1. Don't jump to conclusions
2. Take your time to get to know the individual's personal soul reality
3. Contemplate all the signatures involved
4. Take your time to arrive at an inner knowing.
