

Chart Interpretation Course Chart Reading Volunteer Form

>>PLEASE READ THIS FIRST<<

Thank you for offering your chart for my 2024/25 training program students. I am seeking two groups of people:

1. People who will volunteer their charts for our class for our own practice. These people will not attend my classes live but will be given the recording and have the opportunity to ask questions/ follow up etc.
2. People who will show up live in class as a live volunteer. These classes are Thursday's at 11:00 am Pacific.

For both groups of people, here is what I need:

- You will fill out a bio in which you will share any important context of your life journey/ share whatever you feel might be helpful for us to learn about your soul
- Ask any questions/ bring forward any content that is important to your soul.
- Date, Time (as exact as possible), and location of birth
- Consent that we will utilize our chart for our learning purposes and that we may have follow up questions for you.
- You will be willing to be honest and transparent and available for the purposes of our student learning.

All of your personal share and your astrology chart will be posted on a private student forum for my students to review, and then interpreted during one of our weekly live classes. It will not be utilized, discussed or shared outside of our class container.

All chart practice and live volunteer readings will be taking place during November through February 2024 - 2025. Please note, there is the possibility that I will not use your chart during this cycle. However if you have been given this form it means that I consider you a good candidate for my practice classes and I will get to you when the next opportunity arises.

59 years—middle of 2nd Saturn Return

A sense of special destiny has always been in my life since a young age, though its focus has morphed over and over as time goes on. Forties to current—mainly to share and disseminate various levels of downloads, information, and fulfill social role in the world (an ongoing process). Always dancing with integration (mutable grand cross with nodes).

Unclear right now about steps forward (relative to writing, new podcast, etc). With Saturn now direct (November 2024) and completing last pass to progressed retrograde Saturn 11 Pisces, and natal rx Saturn 15 Pisces more will be revealed.

Mainly focused on pet care practice, and animal communication clients. Still filling out Saturn function in this life—to improve in strength and character of substance, and fulfill 12th house function.

Early life: I was born in a catholic hospital—Holy Cross, which had/has a statue of Mother Mary overseeing the grounds. Raised a few miles away, in neighborhood that backed to Saint Mary Magdalene Episcopal church—sister church to Grace Episcopal where our family attended, and where I was confirmed.

No doubt, I came in as a Magdalene Soul—book about what that means and more about Divine Virgin with eventually come out.

Current Uranus transit to natal Mercury August 2024 brought forth repressed trauma with my father, which led to vision of us in pastlife—linked to religion and domination of the feminine (me).

Not so sure about 4th/10th representing gender change (maybe with integration of grand cross in this life, will lead to it).

Raised in “normal” Caucasian middle class family, as 3rd child (the baby). Two older sisters (all 3 very close in age from Pluto Virgo generation). Not overly religious nuclear/extended family, though God and love were the foundation of what I learned (especially from paternal Grandmother, Aunts, Uncles and Father—learned the opposite as well, lots of alcoholism, incest, etc underlying).

Quite naive in general, although knew at age 5 my oldest sister and I had been together many times. Sexually abused at same age, in neighborhood. Overbonding occurred with my father, as my mom was pretty much unavailable.

Underlying shadow current running through home life, with mother being depressed, which turned into sexual addiction and food addiction throughout her life, on top of her being in and out of hospital most of my early life (type 1 diabetic discovered eventually).

Approach of first Saturn opposition (Saturn on natal Sun/Mercury) broke the naiveté repeatedly throughout teenage years and into twenties (much trauma ensued via transits, father's progressed Mars in Pisces and mother energetically oozing). All of this led to drug use age 11 (initially opened my psychic abilities—smoking peyote at age 12, etc., though fragmentation occurred as well).

Severe depression set in by first nodal return and obsession with suicide (age 19) took hold. Landed in hospital after seeking therapy from attempt to check out. All this led to eventual surrender age 23 (to family of origin treatment center, group therapy, ongoing therapy, 12-step programs, astrology, new thought churches, Course in Miracles, miraculous visions and visitations (family members, ascended masters, angels, guides), meeting healers and seers, massage school, bodywork, shamanism, etc—landing me in clearer experience of Pisces, rather than the toxic pit it can be and the discerning power of Virgo).

Learned boundaries, to use my voice more authentically (have always been generally outspoken though), awaken functional energy centers...art, writing, mystical life, authentic processing of emotions, forgiveness path consumed daily life. Graduated massage school 1994, began healing practice...

More than three decades ago (1990), I emerged onto a healing path, (to address intense codependency patterns, childhood trauma, severe anxiety, and disembodiment). Eventually I was introduced to the Great Divine Mother. As the path unfolded, immense healing became the norm as my consciousness and then current-life merged with psycho-spiritual, psychic openings.

Writing became my solace, and led to greater and greater growth and learning, and sense/drive to share and disseminate various levels of downloads, information through books (unpublished as of yet), and client animal communication sessions. First Saturn return - became massage therapist, specializing in healing arts which led to massive healing personally and then with human clients (on table, energy healing, prophetic insights visions into health and emotional patterns...)

Simultaneously, college study in thirties and forties (and EA study) opened soul up further—led to improving writing abilities/efficiency, inner process and collective vision of collective dynamics on planet (NN 12th Gemini).

A sense of special destiny has always been in my life since a young age, though its focus has morphed over and over as time goes on. Mainly to share and disseminate various levels of downloads, information, and fulfill social role in the world (an ongoing process). Unclear right now about steps forward (relative to writing, new podcast, etc).

As Saturn now direct and completing last pass to progressed retrograde Saturn 11 Pisces, and natal rx Saturn 15 Pisces more will be revealed. Current—much of 2024 mainly focused physical recovery from removal gall bladder in March (huge shift relative to chronic pain pattern—trauma pattern—old resentments all lodged there).

And on pet care practice, and animal communication clients. Still filling out Saturn function in this life—to embody strength and character of substance, rather than shell of life (how it feels right now).

All my soul really wants to do is write—complete writings projects (Divine Feminine, The Daily Virgin, Animal Spirit Alchemy), publish them as teachers in and of themselves. Am also happy to be grounded in the physical working with animals in realtime, and continually building business in that regard. Saturn very much forcing that now, more than writing.

A few words/thoughts about Pluto 4th house: still very connected to ancestral family, living and passed on. I can see how dependent I still am on them. As my father and aunts age (78-84), the grounding they have provided in my life is waning and it's quite uncomfortable. That said, I feel as this transition continues to occur my natural voice will continue to come out. There is a deep fear about putting my writing out into the world (it's pretty intense and beautiful, ha! Pluto Venus). And I know it will ultimately break a long-standing cycle for my soul.

Do you have any questions or prayerful intentions for your life that you'd like to us to address/ give attention to? What is most alive and important to you right now?

Mainly wrote about this above.

Prayer intentions of culmination of the integration I came here to do, including fulfilling this life mission is more than welcome.

Thank you Ari Moshe for this opportunity.
